Chelsea Shukov and Jamie Grobecker are Los Angeles' connoisseurs of communication and revivalists in the art of letter writing. These close friends and graphic designers established Sugar Paper 10 years ago to celebrate their love of paper while closing a void in the market for classic and timeless stationery. Today, Sugar Paper is renowned for its design aesthetic and unparalleled taste.

According to Jamie, Sugar Paper caters to a sophisticated woman who appreciates the finer things in life, writes thank you notes and minds her manners. "Stationery is an extension of one's personal style. We are believers in simple design and quality materials and our customers appreciate that."
